all serious crises
but none are root of problem
so when we go at them
when we focus on them
when we organize around them

cancerous distraction

we end up spending
our time/energy on
triaging symptoms
perpetuating sea world
whac-a-moling our lives with

same song

we need a global detox/reset we need ai as augmenting interconnectedness to undo our hierarchical listening and facil/hasten that seeming chaos

ie: nonjudgmental
exponential labeling

because what we need most [aka: root of problem]
is the energy of 8b legit free people

dancing the dance
stopping at enough

if we organize around
two missing pieces (authenticity & attachment)
those two needs every soul craves the dance will dance
and everything else will fall away
will fall into place

WHY NOT DO SOME OF THE SERIOUS THINGS

– Noam Chomsky

most

[aka: root of problem]

legit freedom will only happen if it's all of us in order to be all of us.. has to be sans any form of

measuring,
accounting,
people telling other
people what to do

imagine if we listen to the

itch-in-8b-souls

1st thing everyday & use that data to connect us how we gather in a space is huge we need to try spaces of permission where people have nothing to prove to facil curiosity over decision making.. because the finite set of choices of decision making is unmooring us.. keeping us from us..

ie: whatever for a year;

a sabbatical ish transition

PERHAPS

free people
connecting per itch

spaces of permission
sharing resources
(commoning)

facilitating curiosities
nothing to prove

soul peace
conversing w/self

world peace
conversing w/others

undisturbed ecosystem

aka: the dance

there is

a nother way

for (blank)'s sake
and we're missing it
